MEDITERRANEAN TENSION CLIMAX EXPECTED SOON: ITALY STRIKING MAY 24?

Harvest First For Il Duce

While wild rumours continue to spread about Italy's imminent entry in the war on the side of Germany, the tension has somewhat abated and the tone of the Italian press is less aggressive towards France and Britain, states a Havas message, exclusive to the Hongkong Daily Press, received last night.

"MORAL AND DIPLOMATIC SUPPORT"

The police guards around the French and British Embassies and the Yugoslav Legation have been reduced.

Foreign quarters are of the opinion that the tension in the Mediterranean will reach a climax within six or seven weeks, namely, after the harvest which is a most important date for Italy. Others expect Italy's entry in the war on May 24, the anniversary date of Italy's entry in the war on the Allies side in 1915.

Observers are of the opinion that the Fascist Government's efforts to stir up the Italian masses was premature and the anti-Allied outbursts will be interrupted for some time.

Meanwhile, Italy is continuing "moral and diplomatic support" of Germany as heretofore.

War Must Not Be Allowed To Spread

LONDON, May 17 (Reuter).—Referring to President Roosevelt's message to Congress, the DAILY TELEGRAPH declares: "Mr. Roosevelt's representations to Italy have already shown that he is determined to use the influence of the United States against aggression."

"What the most distinguished publicists in America, and the press in general, have been printing since the war on attack on Scandinavia and the Low Countries indicates the American people are heartily with the President in his resolution to ensure that the power of conquest by parachute and air-conveyed troops shall not prevail over civilisation."

"He sees clearly that only the strength of the British and French Empires now stands between Hitler and world dominion."

PARIS, May 17 (Reuter).—All buses disappeared from the streets of Paris yesterday as they were required for the transport of refugees.

Fighting In Belgium Is Reviewed

ALLIES' POSITION FAVOURABLE

LONDON, May 17 (Reuter).—Reviewing the fighting in Belgium, the DAILY TELEGRAPH comes to the conclusion that the general position is favourable for the Allies.

Under the heading 'Open Warfare', the paper, in an editorial, writes: "It was stated by the French High Command yesterday that the battle of the Meuse, from Namur to Sedan, had 'taken on the characteristic of open warfare'."

"In this area fully mechanised armies are being put to the first fair test with ample equipment, tanks, aircraft and artillery on either side."

"The result, thus far, of the attack and counter-attack—in a tremendous clash—is such an intermingling of opposed forces, that no precise account of the line can be given."

"We are still far from a decision in the battle. Its fortunes may change again."

"Whatever the future may bring we are already certain that the offensive has met with a check unexpected by those who ordered it."

MORE GOOD WORK BY R.A.F.

LONDON, May 17 (BWS).—The Air Ministry announces that "during last night R. A. F. aircraft made further successful bombing attacks on military objectives in Germany."

CHINESE RECAPTURE TSAOYANG

FANCHING, May 17 (Central).—Culminating a week's successful operations, Chinese forces recaptured TsaoYang late yesterday evening, according to an urgent message received this morning.

TsaoYang strategic stronghold 70 miles north of Chungyang and 40 miles east of Siangyang was the base of Japanese operations in north Hubei for their unsuccessful drive toward the upper reaches of the Han River.

The message said the main Japanese force defending TsaoYang was routed, and the remnant troops are fleeing southward to Suhsien and Wukiatien in utter confusion.

"WORLD AFFAIRS"

HITLER CANNOT LAST TWO WEEKS AT PRESENT RATE

Unrest In Nazi Germany Forced Fuehrer's Desperate Gamble

"HITLER WANTS TO WIN THE WAR IN TWO WEEKS, and he knows that if he fails he is doomed," declared Mr. H. Wickham Steed, eminent authority on "World Affairs," when he broadcast a review of the situation on the European Front from Daventry yesterday.

Mr. Wickham Steed said that at the moment when a great battle is raging in Belgium, when Holland has fallen, it is necessary that we take a long view and, above all, keep cool and calm. "That I am going to do and first deal with the question why Hitler has chosen to put forth his supreme effort at this stage."

INTERNAL DISSENSION IN GERMANY

It is a difficult question to answer and we can merely make a guess, but I think my guess is quite accurate.

Last week a German writer expressed the belief that the internal situation in Germany would not allow Hitler to stand still for much longer. This was before the invasion of Holland and Belgium, when the general opinion was that Hitler and his generals would stake everything on the great summer offensive.

Women Aliens Should Also Be Interned

NEWS - CHRONICLE ON ROUND-UP

LONDON, May 17 (Reuter).—Welcomes Britain's "round-up" of aliens, the NEWS-CHRONICLE writes that the Government acted wisely in ordering the internment of still more Austrians and Germans but it may be doubted whether our precautions have gone far enough.

Now that we know the full menace of the saboteur and spy in Hitler's war we must re-examine the position of all aliens and stiffen restrictions wherever necessary.

Recent precautions had been confined to men of Austrian and German nationality but, experience in Holland showed that women were also being used as Nazi agents.

It is illogical and unwise to intern only male aliens, the paper adds.

MINEFIELD IS LOCATED

PRETORIA, May 17 (Reuter).—A communique from the Defence Headquarters states "a minefield has been located off the Cape Agulhas. The Defence Department is taking adequate steps to deal with it and several mines have already been safely exploded."

"Cape Agulhas is the southern most point of Africa and a well-known mark for mariners on the Cape route."

I have good reason to believe that Hitler told Mr. Sumner Welles in their recent conversations that he had decided to smash the Allies in the summer. Then von Ribbentrop told the Pope that the Allies would, before long, be brought to their knees, all this pointing to the fact that Hitler could not wait.

PEACE OFFENSIVE FAILS

Dutch Royal Family May Go To N.E.I.

It is reported in informed circles that members of the Dutch royal family may be expected to transfer their residence in the near future from London to the Netherlands East Indies.

The Netherlands Government is now in London. Whether the seat of the Government will be transferred to the Netherlands East Indies, should Queen Wilhelmina make the trip, is not indicated.

Questioned regarding the authenticity of the report, Mr. D. G. E. Middelburg, Netherlands Consul-General in Hongkong, said he had received no official information to that effect.

PARIS, May 17 (Reuter).—It was not an accident, said the head of a convoy of five American Red Cross ambulances which were attacked on the Western Front by German planes.

General Gamelin Choosing Best Moment For Counter-Attack And Allied Line Said In No Danger

LONDON, MAY 17 (REUTER).—REUTER'S SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT SOMEWHERE IN BELGIUM REPORTS THERE WAS NO OFFICIAL INFORMATION AVAILABLE REGARDING THE LATEST DEVELOPMENTS IN THE SITUATION AS FAR AS THE BRITISH FRONT IS CONCERNED, BUT THERE APPEARS TO HAVE BEEN LITTLE CHANGE IN THE PAST 24 HOURS.

The British line east of Brussels, including Louvain, apparently remains intact. The question whether the British will do everything to hold the present line or withdraw to another position westward must be governed by the action of the Allies on the right, that is to the south.

General Gamelin, doubtless, has a plan dealing with a German wedge, but he is not the sort of man to do things in a hurry. Although the French has taken certain counter-measures to meet the German thrust with greater effectiveness, it seems that Gen. Gamelin is choosing his moment for a main counter-attack.

THE MAIN POINT HE HAS TO CONSIDER IS WHETHER THE GERMANS WILL TRY TO ROLL UP THE ALLIED LINE TO THE NORTH OF THE WEDGE OR TO THE SOUTH—THAT IS TO THE MAIN DEFENCES OF THE MAGINOT LINE PROPER.

The British force, as merely part of the whole, must, therefore, await the outcome of the present battle in Rumon and Sedan and Gen. Gamelin's decision as to his next step.

CHURCHILL FLIES TO FRANCE

It is learned, says British Wireless, that the Prime Minister, Mr. Churchill, flew to Paris on Thursday and has since returned.

Mr. Churchill conferred not only with the French Government but with French military advisers.

The visit is regarded in London and Paris as very valuable and useful and has been most beneficial and encouraging.

LONDON, May 17 (Reuter).—The War Office announces that the second contingent of the Australian Imperial Force has arrived in Egypt and are now proceeding to Palestine under Major-General I. G. Mackay.

SUNDAY, MAY 26, TO BE A DAY OF NATIONAL PRAYER

THE HEADS OF CHURCHES HAVE RESPONDED WHOLE-HEARTEDLY to the King's desire that Sunday, May 26, should be observed as a day of national prayer on behalf of the nation and the Empire, of the Allies and of the cause in which they are united, reports British Wireless.

The Archbishop of Canterbury, Dr. Cosmo Lang, states: "There ought to be no delay in enabling the whole nation, in acts of united prayer, to submit to the protection and blessing of Almighty God, the cause to which, with its Allies, it has pledged all its strength and men who on the sea and land and in the air are defending that cause."

Cardinal Hinsley and Archbishop Amigo state: "Only by turning to God through penance and prayer shall we be enabled to stem the flow of ruthless barbarism which has burst over the world and win the victory of right over might."

The Moderator of the Federal Council of the Evangelical Free Churches of England states: "It will be a united manifestation by all who hold Christian faith that God is more concerned than we that righteousness and truth be established in all the earth."

JAPANESE PLANES ATTACK CHINESE FISHING FLEET

Five Chinese are lying in Queen Mary Hospital as the result of a bombing attack on a fleet of fishing junks by five Japanese Naval warplanes off Mak Tin Ho, in Chinese territorial waters, on the morning of May 12.

The injured are:—KWOK YIN-CHIN, 50, fishing junk master, NG HEUNG, 29, junk foki, LAI KIU, 25, married woman, LO KAN, 25, married woman, and CHAN KO, 20, spinster.

In his report to the police, Kwok Hung-ming, foki of a Hongkong-registered junk, No. 1487, stated that the craft on which he was employed had left Hongkong on May 8 with a cargo of rice and a crew of ten men and four women, bound for Mak Tin Ho, in Chinese territory.

The attack occurred about 11 a.m., three days out of Hongkong, when five planes were seen approaching at a low altitude. The aircraft immediately swooped down on the junks.

On his own junk, Kwok stated, the entire crew, except for two who jumped into the sea, took refuge in the hold. While there, he heard the sound of machine gun fire and of bombs exploding.

He saw his father, the master of the fishing vessel, bleeding from the head, and there were four others aboard the craft who were wounded.

A junk in the near vicinity suffered a direct hit from a bomb, and was sunk.

MR. SOUTHARD TO PITCH FIRST BALL TODAY

Mindanao-Brewers Cross Bats At Navy Field

BY R.O.Y.

Mr. Addison E. Southard, U.S. Consul-General, will speed the 1940 season on its way this afternoon when, at 2.30 p.m., he performs the traditional opening ceremony of pitching the first ball in the match between the U.S.S. Mindanao and the H.B. Club, at the R.N.R.C. Ground, Caroline Hill.

These two teams were selected by the League committee as being most capable of providing the excitement and entertainment fitting to such an occasion and the boys will be right in there dishing it out, so fans can expect an excellent contest.

Leading the Mindanao gang will be Pochie Chase who has forsaken his old spot at the Keystone back to take up the hindmanning duties. Red Keplinger will be his starting hurler whose medium paced, but well controlled, benders should give the H.B. hitters a trying afternoon. O.H. Horseshoe Douglas, Crooner and Ted Todd will handle first, second and third respectively while Bubbles Badrick will show his wares at the Windy Alley slot. Gardeners placed from left to right, will be Tony-Masavage, "Puddle-Jumper" Wilson and "Big" Padgett.

THE BREWERS

The Brewers will line-up Jesse Arculli on the mound, supported by Hal "Baby-face" Wing Leg behind the pan. Terry Leonard at the initial sack, will try and reproduce the form that earned him the reputation of being one of the best first sackers seen locally some years back, while George Souza can be expected to give a flashy display at the middle cushion. Zinho Gosario, in his first season of baseball, will be stationed at the Hot Corner while Dave Leonard will round out a remarkably sound infield at his regular short-stop position.

H. Al. Stan Leonard and A. A. Rumpahn will form the pasture patrol, while in reserve will be such well-known players as Denham Cray, A. K. Omar, Tarzan Ismail and Sherry Bux. The sailor boys have been paying strict attention to business this year and have an even money chance of taking the honours, even though last year's records appear to show that the Brewers have a decided edge.

TOMORROW'S GAME

Although two "matches" were originally scheduled for tomorrow morning, only the Chung Hwa-Royal Engineers clash will be played, as South China have not yet selected their squad. Instead of

SOFTBALL AT MACAO

HONGKONG PLAYERS ENTERTAINED

From Our Own Correspondent
MACAO, May 12.—Softball gained admission into the local realm of sport this afternoon when four Hongkong squads, under the leadership of "Doc" Molthen and other Hongkong diamond luminaries, put up an exhibition of the game at the Candrome Stadium.

Two games were played. In the first, Portugal, wearing the Recreio colours, battled to a win over the Rest of Hongkong. Among some of the players who were seen in action were the Gosano brothers, Nick Beltrao, Johnny Alvarez, Tony Alves, Dave Leonard, and other well-known base hitters.

The second game was temporarily held up on account of a heavy rain squall. Mostly bare-footed, and slithering through the mud, very often on their backs, the Chinese Ladies faced the Rest of Hongkong.

An indication of local interest in softball was demonstrated by the large turnout of spectators at this exhibition.

FALSE REPORT TO POLICE

A fine of $50 was imposed by Mr. Q. A. A. Macfadyen at Kowloon Court yesterday on Chan Hol, 40, travelling trader, convicted of having given false information to the Police.

Sub-Insp. L. Tyler, prosecuting, said that on May 15, defendant reported to the Water Police that he met 10 robbers at Mrs. Bay in British territory and they had robbed him of 79 pieces of Chinese medicines and $275 in Chinese currency.

The Police investigated the report, and having reason to believe that it was false, questioned defendant, who later admitted that he had fabricated the story in detail.

What had actually happened was that he met the robbers in Chinese territory and had been robbed of his medicines. On reporting the loss to his master, however, he claimed, he was instructed to inform the Police that robbery was in British territory. His master, he explained, had

UNREGISTERED WARD

Pleading guilty to having had in her possession a six-year-old ward not registered with the S.C.A. and admitting that she had beaten the child, a woman named Shan Pik-lam, 20, was fined $40, or in default a month with hard labour, by Mr. Q. A. A. Macfadyen at Kowloon Court yesterday.

Defendant said she had to punish the girl as she constantly ran out into the street, without permission, where she was in danger of being run over by passing cars. She thought she had to teach the child a lesson.

Inspector H.W. Fraser, of the S.C.A., said that the girl had been examined by a doctor, and numerous bruises were found on her arms and legs.

thought that the police would be more likely to immediately investigate the robbery if it was reported as having occurred in British territory.

BIGGEST R.A.F. RAID OF THE WAR

French Shell German Munition Dump

LONDON, May 17 (Reuter).—Up to late last evening the following was the position on the Lowland western front.

Two features of yesterday's operations were the biggest R.A.F. raid of the war and fighting west of Sedan.

The Air Ministry announced that the R.A.F. raid lasted the whole night. The planes bombed the enemy road, rail and communications east of the Rhine. Many tons of bombs were dropped and many fires and explosions followed.

The Nazis have kept fairly quiet about the raid although a passing reference to it was made by the German High Command which claims that no military objectives were hit, but a number of civilians were killed. They also stated that the bombs only did a little damage.

It is known that there was a great melee of troops and tanks in the area affected and that the enemy was trying to debouch from the bridge heads which he had established. The Allied High Command has taken the necessary dispositions which it hopes will be successful. East and south of Sedan, the enemy is being held and the only activity there is heavy artillery fire.

TANKS AND BOMBERS
The only reliable news of operations to the north-west of Sedan is contained in a French communiqué.

The communiqué states that operations are taking on the characteristics of open warfare. Tanks and planes are being used in large numbers.

Owing to the higher interests of the conduct of military operations the communiqué could not give any further details for the present.

Responsible spokesmen do not deny that the position between Namur and Sedan is serious but they assert that Allied High Command has taken the necessary measures to reduce the pocket French defences at Sedan.

GREAT MELEE OF TROOPS
Some of the German motorised units which broke through at Sedan got to the rear of the French lines but by Wednesday evening the French were able to counter-attack.

Presumably, the enemy resumed operations yesterday but up to a late hour in the afternoon there was no more news.

Nazis Stake Their All

FRENCH PREMIER'S STIRRING TALK

PARIS, May 17 (Reuter).—"Germany has decided to stake her all," declared M. Paul Reynaud, the French Premier, when with his National Union Government, he faced the Chamber yesterday afternoon.

M. Reynaud added that Germany had thrown herself on three free people and today she aimed at the heart of France.

Holland had lost her soil but had discovered in a few days those virtues which had made her greatness in history. The Dutch Government had told him, "We shall be at your side with all the resources of our Empire to the very end."

FRANCE CAPABLE
M. Reynaud said Hitler has decided to make war to smash France, dominate Europe and thereafter the world.

Hitler wanted to win the war in two months. "If he fails, he is lost but he has taken the risk. We are perfectly aware of the peril. We know that these coming days, weeks and months will mould centuries to come. Peril has united the nation. On the day when everything seems lost, the world will see that France is capable." (Loud and prolonged cheers)

"We must not be satisfied with vague hopes or words. Our soldiers are fighting, blood is flowing. The times ahead of us may have nothing in common with the past."

NO ROOM FOR WEAKNESS
"Revolutionary measures will have to be taken. We may have to change everything in methods and men."

M. Reynaud, after stating that every weakness would be met with immediate punishment of death, concluded:

"We are full of hope because we know that our lives count for nothing. One thing alone counts: Preserve France."

Remarkable scenes of enthusiasm followed, the Deputies standing and applauding for a long time.

The Chamber adjourned sine die, the President being empowered to recall Parliament if necessary.

MAYBE IT'S ONLY CONTEMPT!

LONDON, May 17 (Reuter).—Early yesterday the German radio told the German people a thrilling tale of how the world is gazing in wonder at the marvellous courage displayed by the German army in Holland, Belgium and France.

Hitler long ago foresaw this beautiful picture of the future which was now being realised on the battlefields of the west, the announcer went on unblushingly.

The German press trumpets that the battle is a decisive hour for the German people. They must forget the great sacrifice of life and think only of the outcome which will be to give Germany a great world empire and make her the mightiest nation in the world.

MAY GERMANY BE CRUSHED, FERVENT ITALIAN PRAYER

ROME, May 17 (Reuter).—There is a widespread feeling here yesterday that even if the Government has decided upon eventual belligerency, the present state of alarm may continue for some time.

The sailing of the Conte de Savoia is taken as an indication of at least a fortnight's peace since it is thought that Italy will not care to risk the seizure of this ship in the Atlantic.

Meanwhile the Press continues to give whole-hearted support to Germany.

It is nevertheless clear that anxiety is growing daily among the masses regarding present operations and many a prayer is being uttered that Germany shall be speedily crushed.

Chins Up In Belgium

EXCELLENT MORALE, SAYS PREMIER

BRUSSELS, May 17 (Reuter).—M. Paul Spaak, the Belgian Foreign Minister, yesterday declared that the situation was serious.

He said that the German plan consists in attacking only on a limited front on which they pile up such quantities of material and support their attacks with such large air forces that the task of the defenders becomes extremely difficult.

This plan allows the German High Command to ensure territorial gains but at a cost of enormous losses of men and material.

At certain points, he said, the front had been successively taken and retaken.

ENORMOUS SACRIFICES
There were literally great heaps of destroyed tanks.

Similarly the German air force continued to strike twice or three times to those of the Allies and are making enormous sacrifices.

However, he said, the Allies appeared to have grown used to some extent to the German air attacks and to a war of movement in which their forces were most often attacked by an invisible enemy.

Despite their fatigue, M. Spaak continued, the morale of the troops was excellent—especially since contact had been established between the Belgian and Allied troops.

Reinforcements were arriving steadily.

DUTCH NAVY TO WORK WITH ALLIES

LONDON, May 17 (Reuter).—The Journal de Geneva, a Berne newspaper, yesterday said that despite Holland's capitulation the Dutch Navy will participate in Allied naval operations.

The great resources of the Dutch Colonies, says the paper, are at the disposal of the Allies.

General Gamelin has chosen a site for the great battle on the western front, continues the Journal de Geneva.

This does not allow us to foresee its issue, but give the Allies confidence and good chances of success.

The brilliant successes of the German Army on the Somme in 1918 were a prelude to its destruction.

Heavy Battle In Zeeland

DUTCH DESTROY OIL SOURCES

LONDON, May 17 (Reuter).—The latest information reaching London indicates that heavy fighting is still proceeding in Zeeland.

On the eastern side of the delta which they yesterday forced in the line about Sedan, the Germans are now held.

On the west side of the delta, the situation is stated to be serious but not critical.

Liege is isolated but appears to be holding out, and information suggests that Namur may be isolated, but the information is not definite on this point.

In any case Namur is also holding out.

North of Zeeland fighting is proceeding between Allied and German troops. Fighting has been particularly heavy in Walcheren and Beveland.

In Belgium, the line still runs roughly east to Antwerp towards Louvain and Charleroi and southwards towards Mezieres and on towards Longwy.

The most serious part of the line is between Dinant and Sedan.

SITUATION CONFUSED
On Wednesday afternoon, north of Namur the Germans launched several attacks on British, French and Belgian troops. At Sedan they began violent attacks which, by evening, seemed checked, and at certain points Allied troops made slight progress along the Meuse.

In the Vosges, there was heavy artillery fire against the Maginot Line and in the Rhine the French fired upon the German Line.

A French message reaching London stated that between Namur and Sedan, the situation is very confused.

The Germans profited by the advances and pushed forward armoured columns which penetrated some distance into the French line.

It now appears that practically all the oil in Amsterdam and Rotterdam was destroyed by the Dutch and so did not fall into German hands.

LONDON, May 17 (Reuter).—More Dutch refugees arrived here yesterday, including officers and men of the Dutch army who escaped in trawlers. The trawlers were bombed and machine-gunned by German planes which secured no hits and were driven off by two British warships. A Dutch civilian reports that all petrol stocks were set on fire as the Germans approached.

PILOTS HAD A GOOD DAY

LONDON, May 17 (Reuter).—The Air Ministry states that the damage inflicted by Wednesday night's bombing operations on military objectives was extensive and covered a wide area.

The majority of aircraft—the largest force of R.A.F. bombers yet employed—found and bombed their targets. They caused widespread damage and many explosions and fires broke out.

No opposition was offered by enemy fighters but the ground defences were active.

ONLY ONE MISSING
Direct hits were scored on the main road and railway line. Other planes successfully bombed the roads leading to the bridge and set the woods alight.

A military encampment was also attacked and a bomber scored a direct hit in the centre of a mechanised column two miles long.

The daily toll inflicted on enemy aircraft is working out at more than three to one in our favour.

Several direct hits were scored on another long mechanised column by Hampden bombers which also attacked road and rail communications.

Only one of our aircraft failed to return.

BLENHEIMS LOST
Night operations were carried out simultaneously by Wellington aircraft to assist the Allied infantry encountering an enemy attack in the neighbourhood of Turnhout (north of the Albert Canal) and Dinant (south of Namur).

During the day, bombing operations were also carried out in the neighbourhood of Montherme and Dinant by two squadrons of Blenheim aircraft. They caused heavy damages to parked lorries and tanks.

Two Blenheims failed to return. Our fighter pilots had a good day. A total of 50 enemy aircraft were destroyed.

AIR ATTACKS ON ENEMY

LONDON, May 17 (Reuter).—Since dawn today wave after wave of British fighter aircraft have been bombing and machine-gunning enemy positions and troops on the march in Meuse Valley, says Reuter's special correspondent on the Belgian frontier.

Pontoon bridges have been blown up and roads blocked with debris following the explosion of heavy bombs. In these operations 39 enemy machines have been shot down. There is little definite news other than this from the battle front.

A. R. P. DIRECTOR APPEALS FOR MORE RECRUITS

(TO THE EDITOR, HONGKONG DAILY PRESS)

Dear Sir,—May I, through the medium of your paper, appeal to all managers and owners of business firms, factories, hotels, flats, and buildings of similar nature, to put their house in order, so that should an emergency ever arise in the Colony, they will be in a position to put their A. R. P. plan of operation into effect with smoothness and efficiency.

The action that I would suggest should be taken immediately is:—

- (a) To appoint a small committee with, if applicable, representatives from each firm occupying the building;
  - (b) To appoint an official to prepare a co-ordinated A. R. P. scheme for the whole of the building, and to take executive charge in times of emergency;
  - (c) To detail employees to take A. R. P. courses, which will enable them not only to instruct the remainder of the employees, but also to act as leaders, should the need ever arise.
- As a basis, I would suggest that one individual in every ten should be thoroughly trained in the following subjects:—
- (i) The selection of the most suitable place to utilise as a refuge;
  - (ii) The methods which can be employed to make the selected refuge reasonably proof against the effects of blast and splinters from high explosive bombs;
  - (iii) The methods of controlling incendiary bombs and the preventive action which can be taken to prevent the spread of fire;
  - (iv) Personal protection against the effects of chemical warfare;
  - (v) Elementary first aid, both for wounded and/or gas casualties;
  - (vi) Co-ordination with the Air

Raid Warden Post situated nearest to their building;

(vii) Knowledge of the Air Raid Warning signals, Lighting Restrictions and Government A. R. P. Organization.

Many firms have already prepared A. R. P. schemes, and to them I would ask for even more employees to be trained, and to other firms, I would earnestly appeal for their co-operation.

It will be asked, how can I assist? My reply is that Government will train free of charge as many employees as may be nominated by the firms concerned. If managers or owners of premises will be good enough to inform me at the above address of the number of their employees, they wish to be trained, I will gladly arrange for their instruction, either in English or Chinese, in the subjects mentioned above, at the times and places convenient.

Approximately 3,000 trained Wardens have volunteered for public duty, but their task and that of the essential services will be made easier in the knowledge that all business firms and factories, etc. have trained men and women capable of dealing with any situation which might arise—Yours etc.

A. H. STEELE-PERKINS
Director of Air Raid Precautions.

(b) no enemy interest is involved.

FALSE PRETENCES CHARGE

A former Water Department coolie, Fong Tsun-yan, 23, was fined $100, in default two months' hard labour by Mr. E. Himsforth at Kowloon Court yesterday on a charge of obtaining money by false pretences.

Sgt. Morrison, prosecuting, said that defendant on May 14, called at No. 42, Sai Yeung Choi Street, ground floor, where he informed Yeung Hong, 28, the principal tenant, that the Water Department had sent him to put right a water cock that was out of order.

Having examined the water cock and tinkered with it, defendant then told the principal tenant that he would have to pay a bill of $5 to the Water Department and he would immediately give him a receipt.

Yeung Hong, the tenant, then gave defendant $2.50 asking that he wait until the following day for the balance. Defendant gave him a receipt but after he left complainant noticed that the receipt was dated "1934" and reported the case to the police. Defendant was subsequently arrested and charged.

Total $51,500.

SNATCHER CAUGHT

Sentence of four months' hard labour was imposed on Kwan Cheung, 30, coolie, when he pleaded guilty before Mr. R. Edwards at the Central Court yesterday to a charge of theft of $100 from a visitor to the Colony at the Hongkong and Canton Wharf.

Tang Cheung had just arrived from Macao and was leaving the wharf after he had shown the Police the necessary amount required for landing when the defendant snatched the banknotes from his hand.

Kwan was also recommended for banishment.

HELP FOR RED CROSS

The Board of Administrators of the British Fund for the Relief of Distress in China have approved the following grant, and cheque for $4,800, has accordingly been sent to the Foreign Auxiliary to the National Red Cross Society of China:—

Appearing on remand before Mr. H. G. Sheldon at the Central Court, charged with bringing into the Colony and possession of a ward, two married women, Wong Sap-yi and Wong Sap-sam, were each fined $25 or three weeks' hard labour.

King's Park Incident

FOUR MEN ACCUSED OF ROBBERY

Committal proceedings on a charge of robbery with violence at King's Park on the afternoon of March 6 were commenced before Mr. Q. A. A. Macfadyen at Kowloon Court yesterday against Kam Chun, 25, Chan Wal, 25, Lo Chiu-luen, 19, and Lau Yuk, 19, who were charged and arrested by several refugees of the King's Park Refugee Camp.

Lau Lai-kwan, complainant, stated that about 3 p.m. on May 6 she was walking with her cousin, Tam Ping, in King's Park, when she was approached by a man whom she later identified as third defendant. He told complainant he would have to search Tam for contraband.

Three other men then came on the scene. Not finding anything of value on Tam, they proceeded to search Lau. She took out 20 cents and offered it to defendants, but first defendant, she alleged, struck her on the chest. The two men standing behind her pushed her to the ground and struck several blows at her, the witness further alleged.

PUT HAND IN POCKET

Seeking to prevent their taking her purse, which contained $8 and a gold ring, she put her hand inside the pocket where it was kept. First defendant, noticing this action on her part, pulled away her hand and took the purse. The four men then ran and Tam pursued first defendant. Four refugees at King's Park Camp, seeing the men running, joined in the chase and caught Kam Chun.

The following day witness identified defendants at Yau-mat Police Station.

Other witnesses will be heard on Wednesday afternoon.

RADIO SALESMAN CHARGED

Charles Archer, 26, salesman, appeared before Mr. R. Edwards at the Central Court yesterday on a charge of fraudulent conversion. He was alleged to have converted into his own use a radio set, property of the Bosco Radio Corporation, which was to be delivered to Mr. A. Li of the On Lok Yuen Restaurant.

Mr. F. D. Gardner, assistant manager of the firm, appeared as complainant.

Defendant was remanded for 72 hours. Bail was fixed at $2,000.

SALE OF A MINOR

Charged with having taken part in the transaction of a minor, a married woman named Po Sze, aged 28, was remanded for 72 hours by Mr. H. G. Sheldon at Central Court yesterday.

Inspector Moreton, of the S. C. A., who prosecuted, said that the father of the child concerned left his son in the charge of a woman because he had to work. He gave the woman 20 cents a day for the trouble. Some days later he became suspicious because he saw several women about, and on Wednesday last he followed the woman, who was together with the defendant. The two women were buying a new outfit for his son. He then called the police and had the defendant followed. Later in the day the defendant was arrested on a sloop, on board of which was found the boy.

PIRACY VICTIMS SUCCEUMBS

Another victim of the piracy which took place off Sam Mun Chai on May 6, died at the Kowloon Hospital on Thursday. The victim was the eighth person who succumbed to injuries received as a result of the brutal attack by a gang of pirates. Their junk was set on fire after having been plunged into petrol.

JAPANESE PLANES

ANOTHER REPORT

Another report of a Japanese attack on a Chinese junk was received yesterday by the police, when Chen Kwan Fat, master of a fishing craft, described how a Japanese trawler approached his ship, and fired revolver shots.

Thereupon, four Japanese, armed with revolvers and knives, boarded the vessel, searched it, and took clothing. The raiders then took the junk toward Samun, in Chinese territorial waters. However, when the Japanese discovered that the boat was waterlogged, they released it and the junk returned to Hongkong.

HITLER'S FIFTH COLUMN

WORKING unobtrusively and unostentatiously, but using all the wiles, deceptions, and stratagems for which the Nazi war organisation has now become so well known, Herr Hitler's "shock troops," continue to bring into effect the full repertoire of their tricks in every country in Europe today. It is most difficult to locate them and even harder to prevent their foul methods from achieving some measure of success. They mix with the inhabitants of the countries to which they have been assigned, wearing civilian clothes, and are, to all appearances, peaceful and law-abiding citizens of the countries which Herr Hitler's lust for aggression has chosen to be the victims of his dreams of world domination. As phase has succeeded phase in the hostilities in Europe, more and more evidence of the vile nature of the work done by these "shock troops" is coming to light. In every country in Europe—and, perhaps, outside Europe as well—there are Quislings who have stooped to the base inducements offered by these gangs of trained saboteurs, and propagandists and who are ready to sell the honour and freedom of their country when "Der Tag" arrives.

IN THE END there is no doubt that these "shock troops" will defeat their own ends, but, in the meantime, there are many others who are prepared to follow the example of men like Seyss-Inquart, Henlein and Quisling. Before the invasion of the Low Countries, Herr Hitler's "Fifth Column" had started wide-scale operations in Holland and Belgium. In Holland, particularly, the feature of the activity of these Nazi agents was a whispering campaign, which sought to instill into the peaceful Dutch people the fear that an Allied invasion of their territory was imminent. How far these "shock troops" were able to convince the people by these methods will never be clear, but the utter baselessness of Nazi promises to the Low Countries to respect their neutrality is now more than evident—the invasion of Holland and Belgium was probably "Der Tag" for which these Nazi agents had prepared the ground. The rapidity of the manner in which the German war machine pushes forward can only be accomplished with the co-operation of these "shock troops," which form the vanguards for Herr Hitler's invasions. They number not hundreds, but thousands and they include men of several nationalities, but their weapon is fear and they drive it home with all the subtlety at their command and with the full assistance of the Reich, whose Secret Service "pays these agents huge sums of money for their work."

IT TOOK a long time before the countries of Europe woke up to the terrible danger which threatened them from within through this devilish Nazi organisation. And, perhaps, that realisation has come too late. Much of the poison which these Nazi agents have spread has already claimed its victims. But it is never too late to attempt to stamp out these

SMOKING CONCERT HELD AT VOLUNTEER H.Q.

H.E. The Governor Gives Away The Prizes

His Excellency the Governor, Sir Geoffrey Northcote, distributed the prizes won during the year at the various Volunteer competitions, including those at the annual rifle meeting, at Volunteer Headquarters last night when, in place of the Annual Dinner, a smoking concert was held.

A very enjoyable programme was carried out in the course of the evening. Lieut.-Col. H. B. Rose, Commandant, gave a lengthy review of the year's work in the course of which he congratulated the different units for their efficiency and expressed the thanks of the Corps to His Excellency for his kind attendance at the function.

GOVERNOR'S REPLY

After giving away the prizes His Excellency said that he would be proceeding on leave in two days and he hoped, on his return, to find the additions to the Headquarters had been completed.

His Excellency the General Officer Commanding, Major-General A. E. Grasett, who is away from the Colony, could not attend this year's function and his place was taken by Brigadier A. B. Thomson.

COMMANDANT'S SPEECH

Before asking his Excellency the Governor, our Honorary Colonel, to present the prizes that have been won by units and members of the Corps during the past year, I would like to say how grateful we all are that his Excellency has done us the honour of coming here tonight.

His Excellency is leaving the Colony very shortly and in consequence is extremely busy. In addition he has not yet fully recovered from a serious illness and I would like to thank him most heartily on behalf of every member of the Corps for coming this evening to present the prizes.

I am sorry that his Excellency the G.O.C. has been unable to be present but Brigadier Thomson has very kindly come in his place and I extend him a very hearty welcome from all members of the Corps. I would also like to welcome all our other guests if I do not welcome them individually it is only because the number makes this impossible.

KEEN COMPETITION

I would like to congratulate all the prize winners this evening. Competition has been considerably keener this year than even before which is only to be expected with a 100 per cent increase in our numbers and with the increased interest in training.

I congratulate the 1st Battery on being the first winners of the Governor's Trophy. This trophy was presented by his Excellency the Governor to be competed for by all batteries of Corps Artillery during the training season. All subjects are taken into consideration—shooting, drill, discipline. The competition was very keen and the 1st Battery only won by a very short head. We are all very glad that his Excellency should be here to present his own trophy the first time that it has been competed for.

C.R.A. THANKED

I would particularly like to thank the C.R.A., Brigadier McLeod, and his staff for all they did in organising and superintending this competition.

methods of Nazi cunning and deceit. In every country in Europe today—barring, of course, the totalitarian states—the most intensive measures are being directed towards exterminating these verminous organisations. In Britain, too, the drive against this baneful campaign is being conducted on an unprecedented scale. New decrees have been passed imposing the severest penalties for those who are found to be associated with any movements of which there is the slightest doubt. France has done likewise, while the Balkan and Mediterranean countries have not been slow to check the evil and far-reaching influences which these "shock troops" are able to exert on the people. The methods adopted may be drastic, but no pity is possible in dealing with methods which defy the rigid principles of peace, law and order.

The Artillery Cup was won by No. 1 Detachment of No. 1 Gun of the 1st Battery and the Champion Cup by Gunner Smith, also of 1st Battery. This cup is for the best layer in Corps Artillery.

I heartily congratulate the 1st Battery on these successes but I hope next year one of the other batteries will see what they can do about it.

The Marshall Trophy was won by "A" Detachment of 3rd Battery and this detachment did very well indeed.

THE ENGINEERS

The Nathan Cup for efficiency was won by the Field Company Engineers. It is not altogether easy to assess the relative efficiency of units of different arms, but I think no other unit of the Corps is quite so ready to get on with their mobilisation role without outside help and with every detail ready and practised.

The Corps Annual Rifle Meeting was held at the Kowloon Ranges on Sunday, April 14, and was a great success.

H.E. the G.O.C. paid us a visit and watched much of the shooting. I am afraid the last details to shoot in the afternoon were unlucky as conditions deteriorated with wind and rain.

Much of the success of the meeting was due to the very efficient organisation by the Rifle Club Committee under Major Evan Stewart and the Secretary, S. Q. M. S. Hargreaves, both did an immense amount of work to ensure the smooth running and efficient organisation of the meeting.

I would like to thank the Middlesex Regiment for providing the markers. They had a very busy time and without their able assistance we could never have got through the programme.

ARTILLERY SUPPORT

Our own Signals arranged all communications most efficiently.

I would like to thank all those Volunteers who helped so ably to keep the records and tabulated the results which they did most rapidly and accurately.

We were all very pleased to welcome a team from the Stanley Platoon and I congratulate them on their successes. They were second in the Falling Plate and F. McTavish won the Class II Musketry Competition.

I think the Committee were a little lenient in putting such an efficient unit in Class II but they have considerably fewer numbers than the other units.

I would like to congratulate Corps Artillery on the way they supported the Meeting. Although they have very little practice with the hand gun they entered no less than 8 teams which was a very sporting effort.

The Blake Shield was won by No. 1 Company, led by the Company Commander, Major Owen Hughes, with Captain Wood, Lieut. Holmes and Cpl. Hammond. They were closely followed by the Corps Signals. The competition was fired in bad weather and in view of the conditions the scoring was good.

CORPS CHAMPIONSHIP

The Francis Cup was won by No. 6 Portuguese Anti-Aircraft Company again very closely pursued by the Corps Signals who were only one point behind.

The Falling Plate Competition was won by No. 5 Portuguese Company. This team shot extremely well and might well have had all the plates down—as it was one plate was left up with rounds in hand as it appeared from the firing point that all had been hit.

The Stanley Platoon was second and No. 2 Coy 3rd.

Lieut. Austin won the Corps Championship with a very good score. Last year he won the Revolver Cup and I heartily congratulate him on this double victory.

GOOD REVOLVER SHOT

The Musketry Competition was won by Cpl. Hammond Class II-Pie. McTavish and Class III-Pie. Rosario. Cpl. Hammond has been shooting consistently well and thoroughly deserve to win.

The Revolver Competition was won by Lieut. Tansley of 5th A. Battery as he is probably the best Revolver shot in the Colony he deserved to win, but Pipe-Major Mackie of No. 2 Coy was very close to him and Cpl. Mills a close 3rd.

BRITISH RELIEF UNIT ENTERTAINED

Members of the British Relief Unit to China were the guests of honour at a dinner party given by Dr. C. T. Wang, President of the Chinese Red Cross and former Chinese Ambassador in Washington, at the Ying King Restaurant yesterday evening.

Besides the members of the Unit, including Mr. Evert Barger, Mr. Philip Wright, Mr. Owen Evans, Mr. Llewellyn Evans and Mr. William Jenkins, other guests present were Hon. Dr. and Mrs. P. S. Selwyn-Clarke, Hon. Sir Robert Kotewall, Hon. Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Lo, Hon. Dr. and Mrs. Li Shu-fan, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Woo, Dr. and Mrs. Li Shu-pui, Mrs. Rose Tan, Dr. C. Y. Wu and Mr. Y. F. Lieu.

Miss Anni Wang, Dr. Wang's younger daughter, acted as hostess.

Dr. Wang briefly remarked on the meritorious services rendered China by members of the British Relief Unit which served as a symbol of Britain's sympathy towards the Chinese cause.

Thanks were expressed by Mr. Evert Barger, leader of the Unit.

A group photograph was taken after dinner.

The Lugard Machine Gun Cup was competed for during the Nov. Camp at Fanling. The competition was run on similar lines to the A.R.A. Machine Gun Cup and consisted of two parts—a direct section shoot by day and a platoon shoot by night.

Captain Nevo, G.S.A. III, China Command, very kindly undertook the running of the Competition which was a great success and was very keenly contested.

No. 5 Portuguese Company won after an exciting finish. No. 4 Company being second.

The Bell Cup—the Air Arm Efficiency Cup was won by Flight Cadet G. H. Fowler.

At the Bisley Meeting this year I am afraid we did not have many successes, but Cpl. Hammond was 1st in his class in the Sticksdown Competition and 3rd in the Brookwood, and Lieut. Tansley 2nd in the Revolver aggregate.

MACHINE GUN MATCH

I congratulate Lieut. Holmes on getting his place in the last 20 of the Governor's Shield and Commander, Major Owen Hughes, with Captain Wood, Lieut. Holmes and Cpl. Hammond. They were closely followed by the Corps Signals. The competition was fired in bad weather and in view of the conditions the scoring was good.

Again this year the Corps did very well in the Machine Gun Match. There were five teams from the Corps who wished to enter but only two vacancies, as we could not have the range for a shoot off the two places were allotted for the M. M. G. Platoon and No. 5 Portuguese Company drew the two places.

In the competition No. 5 Company were 4th and the M. M. G. Platoon 6th out of 9 teams, all the remainder being from the Regular Army. The competition consisted of two practices and in the second practice No. 5 Company were 1st. No. 5 Company also had the best individual gun of any team.

As they had been unable to have any practice whatever for the competition owing to lack of range accommodation I think the results were very satisfactory.

HELPERS THANKED

Finally I would like to thank all those who have so willingly helped to organise and superintend the different competitions and have given up so much of their time in doing so.

It is difficult to discuss the future at the present time but if conditions are similar next year I think we will have to devote two days to the Rifle Meeting and certainly include L. G. Matchet.

I hope the standard in our weapon training will continue to improve.

The Corps Rifle Club has been re-organised and the membership increased enormously and I hope at the next Bisley Meeting to see members of the Corps more prominent than ever before especially in the open sights competitions.

MEMBER MOBILISED

There is one other prize winner I would like to mention. C. S. M. Peers, Late O.C. Air Arm, was mobilised at the beginning of the War. Shortly after, he won the prize awarded by the Guild of Air Pilots and Navigators of the British Empire for the highest marks obtained by any candidate. I am sure every member of this Corps and especially the Air Arm would like to congratulate him on this success.

First Air Ambulances For B.E.F.

CONTRIBUTIONS BY H.K. GIRL GUIDES

Britain is in vital need of an Air Ambulance Service for H.M. Forces and the first two machines for this service are now under construction for use by the Royal Air Force.

Girl Guides of the British Empire are endeavouring to contribute the £15,000 needed for Britain's first two air ambulances, and are holding an Empire Week from May 19 to 25 in an effort to raise the required amount and, if possible, a further £5,000 for a motor lifeboat.

The Empire Week, which includes Empire Day, will be a special Guide Gift period during which Guides and Guiders of all ranks throughout the Empire, including Old Guides, are asked if they will sacrifice half-a-day's salary, or income, to buy these gifts for the Mother Country.

Brownies are simply asked to give whatever they can spare. The movement has been fully endorsed by H.R.H. the Princess Royal, President of the Girl Guides Association.

LOCAL CONTRIBUTION

Hongkong Girl Guides are expecting to contribute £100 of the required sum and their first effort in this direction was a very successful jumble sale held at Sandilands' Hut yesterday when they realised a total of $35.50 of which $165 was by subscription.

The sale was organised mainly through the efforts of Mrs. C. W. E. Bishop.

EXCELLENT CONCERT

An excellent programme was presented at the concert held in St. Andrew's Church Hall last night in aid of the funds of Christ Church, Kowloon Tong. The Hall was filled with an appreciative audience.

The artists were:—The Mandarin Service Choir, Miss Pauline Chow, Mr. T. E. Ling, Mr. Samuel Wu, Miss Phyllis Ling, Mr. David Wong, Dr. K. T. Young, Mr. T. E. Ling and Mr. Samuel Wu, Miss Yao Tschin-Schin, Mr. J. T. K. Gilchrist, Mrs. Sylvia Choy, Maestro Elisio Gualdi, Mr. David Kossiek, Helen Lockhart, Mr. E. O'Neill Shaw, Mr. John Smith, Mr. Les Gibson.

The compere was Mr. David Kossiek.

GEN. GAMELIN

It is a new kind of warfare—a war of speed and surprise—and he had to estimate the position while things are moving so fast.

The British line at this stage seems to be in no immediate danger.

NEW ATTACK

PARIS, May 17 (Reuter).—The Germans launched a new attack at dawn against British and Belgian forces in the region of Louvain and Malines. It was stated yesterday that the Allies ended with a relatively favourable impression.

Reducing of the enemy pocket, based to the north on the Sambre and to the south on a line north of Rethel, and to the west of Sedan, was carried out in a satisfactory manner. In south Sedan extremely hard fighting is going on.

BETTER PLACED

PARIS, May 17 (Reuter).—A great battle will flare up again immediately, but our troops are now infinitely better situated than on Wednesday morning, says the L'Odeur, which adds that "to attain his object the enemy would have had to break through our front, disorganise our forces and pass through en masse with motorised units from the very first moment, namely on Wednesday morning."

"He failed to do this: his plan, therefore, met with a big check which is already an advantage to us."

LIEGE HOLDING

BRUSSELS, May 17 (Reuter).—The Brussels radio announced this morning that the "Liege forts are still holding out—the symbol of the resistance of a peaceable country."

VIOLENT ATTACKS

OSTEND, May 17 (Reuter).—A Belgian communiqué, dated Thursday evening, says: "North and north-east of Antwerp enemy patrols made contact with our positions. Further to the south some local infantry attacks failed under the fire of our defences. In central Belgium, violent attacks were delivered against positions occupied by Allied forces."

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT SAYS DEFENCES MUST BE READY

Delivery Of Aircraft To Allies Must Be Speeded Up

WASHINGTON, May 17 (REUTERS)—PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT DELIVERED HIS SPECIAL DEFENCE MESSAGE TO CONGRESS PERSONALLY. HE ASKED FOR $1,182,000,000 CASH AND CONTRACT AUTHORISATIONS FOR MILITARY IMPLEMENTS "TO MEET ANY LIGHTNING OFFENSIVE AGAINST AMERICAN INTERESTS."

The President declared that these were ominous days whose swift and awful developments force every neutral to look to its defences. He asserted that dangers confront the United States because of Europe's war and the speed with which modern armies may conquer time and space.

President Roosevelt's requests are divided into $396,000,000 for immediate appropriations for the Army, Navy and Marine Corps and $100,000,000 for emergencies.

In addition he sought authorisation to enter into contracts totalling $286,000,000. President Roosevelt declared that the clear fact is that the American people must recast their thinking about national protection. The element of surprise has become even more dangerous owing to the amazing speed with which modern equipment can reach and attack enemy territory.

WIDESPREAD INTERESTS

Our own vital interests are widespread and more than ever the protection of the whole American hemisphere against invasion or control by non-Americans has united the support of 21 American Republics, including the United States. More than ever this protection demands ready-at-hand weapons capable of great mobility.

THE PRESIDENT WOULD LIKE TO SEE THE UNITED STATES GEARED TO THE ABILITY TO PRODUCE AT LEAST 50,000 PLANES A YEAR. FURTHERMORE, HE SAID, THE NATION SHOULD PLAN A PROGRAMME TO PROVIDE THE COUNTRY WITH 50,000 MILITARY AND NAVAL PLANES.

The object of the new defence fund would be to equip a larger army, replace and modernise the old army and navy equipment, increase production facilities, and accelerate to the 24-hour basis all existing army and navy contracts.

DANGERS OF FUTURE

"Our defences must be invulnerable and our security absolute, but our defences today do not provide for security against potential developments of the dangers of the future."

"Our objective is still peace at home and abroad. Nevertheless we stand ready not only to spend millions for defence, but also to give our service, and even our lives, for the maintenance of American liberties."

PLANE DELIVERIES

One belgierent has many more planes than all its opponents combined, but it also appears to have a weekly production capacity at the moment far greater than its opponents.

The President then asked Congress to take no action which would hamper or delay the delivery of American made planes to the foreign nations which had ordered them or seek more, "from the point of view of our own national defence which would be extremely short-sighted."

SPEECH WARMLY APPLAUDED

WASHINGTON, May 17 (Reuters)—Crowded galleries of the crowded joint session of Congress enthusiastically applauded President Roosevelt's speech. Ten days ago such a speech would have been denounced as war-mongering. The applause was particularly heavy when the President requested delivery of planes for foreign countries be not delayed.

First Lord's Message To All Ships

LONDON, May 17 (BWS)—The First Lord of the Admiralty, Mr. A. V. Alexander, and the First Sea Lord have sent the following message to all ships and vessels that have been, and are, operating from Northern Norway to the Belgian Coast:

"We would like those of you, who are going through the most strenuous time that Naval forces ever had to endure, to realise that we and the Naval Staff know well what is being asked of you."

"Many of you have not had a good night's rest for weeks but, nevertheless, your work has been done magnificently and cheerfully. What you may not realise is that you are helping our country to weather as black a storm as has ever broken. Hold on and carry on in the splendid way you are doing. Good luck to you."

GERMANS CANNOT STAND LONG WAR

BRUSSELS, May 17 (Reuters)—Mr. Delfosse, the Belgian Minister of Communications, said in a broadcast yesterday that the Belgian troops have been performing miracles of heroism.

He gave an instance in which a Belgian major with three privates recaptured a pill-box fort after a hand grenade charge.

For the past three days, he said the Belgians had been resisting their second line positions.

SUPERIOR POWER

A great number of British and French troops were coming up each hour to support them with admirable equipment.

"Be firm and confident," he said. "The aggressor always has the initial advantage but, every hour our defences become more effective. Germany could not face a blockade nor withstand a long war. The Allied power and resources are greatly superior to those of Germany."

LONDON, May 17 (Reuters)—The Germans have gone back to a World War No. 1 weapon. In their attacks on fishing craft, steel darts three inches long were used. The crews of two fishing smacks in the North Sea were attacked with darts and machine-guns by Nazi planes. They got home safely without any loss of life.

BELGIAN LINER BOMBED AND SUNK

ATTACKED BY NAZI PLANES

LONDON, May 17 (Reuters)—The Ville de Bruges, 13,869 tons (formerly the American liner, President Harding) has been bombed and sunk near Antwerp.

The liner was bombed by a German plane on the morning of May 14, soon after leaving Antwerp, with fifty families, mostly women and British subjects, who were being sent home to Britain.

There were 64 passengers aboard, including four children in arms, and a crippled woman. After the bombing they all landed safely. Three of the crew were killed by a bomb and the fourth died later. Fifty-three of the crew arrived in London today.

PASSENGERS PROTECTED

The liner is now lying, a burnt out wreck, on the bank of the Scheldt, 12 miles below Antwerp.

The boatswain said in an interview that they "left Antwerp at 4 a.m. and three hours later three bombers appeared and one swooped down to about 150 feet and let go a bomb. It hit us aft, went through and exploded in the side of the ship, blowing it out. The steel bulkhead protected the passengers quarters and they were not hurt."

The Ville de Bruges was sold to a Belgian company by the United States Lines last February.

BLOOD FLOWN TO B.E.F. IN NORWAY

LONDON, April 18 (By Air Mail)—Two hundred volunteers from two aircraft factories in the West Country have given blood for the British forces in Norway. Some of it has been flown there and will be used if and when the need arises.

It was disclosed on Tuesday that twice in the last three days an urgent message, "Blood is needed at once for the use of the British forces in Norway," had been received by the Army Blood Transfusion Service Headquarters.

At the first appeal 100 volunteers stepped forward and early the next day the blood was on its way. The second appeal came through on Monday night and another 100 at a second factory responded.

Situation In Switzerland Less Tense

ZURICH, May 17 (Reuters)—The situation in Switzerland is now regarded as considerably less tense than at any time since Germany began her invasion of the Low Countries.

According to a high Swiss authority, responsible circles consider imminent action against Switzerland unlikely, while political circles stress the good relations between Italy and Switzerland as a favourable factor.

Some German troops along the frontier have been withdrawn and may have gone to the Western Front.

It is said that one reason why so many German divisions had been stationed on the German-Swiss frontier is that it is a quiet sector, free from bombing, while such divisions may be moved to the Western Front without using the Rhineland railway.

Yugoslavia May Resume Diplomatic Relations With Soviet Russia

LONDON, May 17 (Reuters)—Under the heading "Understanding in the Balkans," The Times, in an editorial states: "The Yugoslav trade delegation which left for Moscow last month has signed three conventions—commerce and navigation, payments and commercial representations."

"Its departure has caused much interest in Italy and in the Balkan States where it was interpreted as an indication of the intention of Yugoslavia to resume diplomatic relations with Russia."

"That may be the ultimate purpose of the Yugoslav Government."

"Trade exchanges between Bulgaria and the Soviet have not yet become important despite the signature of the Russo-Bulgarian Trade Agreement last January."

"It is too early to say whether Yugoslav-Soviet trade will develop more satisfactorily but it is significant that this agreement caused obvious anxiety in German diplomatic quarters in Yugoslavia."

"In non-Slav Balkan States, however, the possibility of an understanding between Yugoslavia and the Soviet is regarded with some misgivings. Recollection of the days when Tsarist Russia was an official patron, now of the Serbs and now of the Bulgars, and often both, persists among Greeks, Rumanians and Turks."

Less Severe Fighting

A French official communiqué issued yesterday morning states: "The battle continued yesterday and during the night between Sambre and the region north of Rethel as well as south of Sedan. Fighting has been less severe in Belgium. Nothing to report in Lorraine and Alsace."—(British Wireless).

Three Times Repulsed

NAZI STORM LOUVAIN

NEW YORK, May 17 (Reuters)—When the Germans, attacking with waves of tanks and bombers, drove their way into Louvain, they suffered heavily from mines which exploded beneath them, says the New York Times correspondent with the British forces in Belgium.

The correspondent adds that as the first Nazi wave endeavoured to force their way under a bridge, the British blew it up and the debris tumbled on the invaders.

The Germans managed to capture the railway station but after some brisk street fighting and three British counter-attacks the Nazis were driven out.

Smashing The Spy Ring

SPECIAL TO H.K. DAILY PRESS
MEXICO CITY, May 17 (Havas)—The intense activity of Nazi agents throughout Mexico has prompted the authorities to take drastic measures against local Nazi organisations, believed to be connected with a similar organisation in the United States.

The police has just ordered the immediate expulsion of two dangerous Nazi agents, one of whom, Michael Stuart Goodfield, was found in possession of a United States passport.

WANTS DEFENCE SECRETS

The name of the other man is Monterrey, who is directly connected with the Reich's secret service. He is accused of trying to get information about the organisation of American defences along the Mexican border, as well as on Mexican military secrets.

As a sequel to these arrests the Mexican Home Minister contemplates the expulsion of 25 foreign agents. A joint investigation is being conducted by the Home Ministry, the Ministry of National Defence and the Judicial authorities.

Competent circles believe that more than 10,000 foreign agents have entered illegally Mexican territory.

JAPANESE PAY HEAVY TOLL IN HONAN

Chinese Officer Puts Losses At 48,000 Troops

CHUNGKING, May 17 (Central)—Though exact figures are still unavailable, it is estimated that at least 48,000 Japanese have been killed in the fighting in the Honan-Hupeh border districts during the past fortnight, according to a Chinese military spokesman in an interview with the Central News yesterday.

In addition, he said, 2,800 Japanese horses have been killed, 69 tanks and armoured cars and 2,000 motor lorries either destroyed or captured and countless arms seized.

The Japanese debacle in that area was attributed by him to the vast Chinese encircling movement, the over-extension of the Japanese line, and the torrential downpours which rendered the enemy mechanised units ineffective.

According to the spokesman, the Chinese forces in south Honan are now in a whirlwind drive towards Sinyang, the Japanese base of operations on the Peiping-Hankow Railway. The Mingkiang-Tangho and Sinyang-Tangho areas are cleared of Japanese troops.

SURROUNDED IN TSAOYANG

In north Hupeh, more than 10,000 Japanese are surrounded in the Tsaoyang area, about 49 miles east of Sinyang, which was one of the objectives of the recent Japanese five-pronged drive. Their rear has been entirely severed. Luyenchow, northwest of Tsaoyang, has been recaptured by the Chinese, thus tightening their grip on the enemy.

Japanese units defeated near Shangchow, west of Tsaoyang, continue to flee southward along the east bank of the Siang River. At Yushan and Huanglungtang, they have been subjected to repeated attacks by the Chinese. The fields there are reported to be strewn with Japanese war dead.

Japanese infantry and cavalry units have counter-attacked, without success, Shanghai, south of Tsaoyang. They are now retreating in the direction of Suhsien.

MACHINE-GUNS TAKEN

Synchronising with their attacks in north Hupeh, Chinese forces in central Hupeh have launched an offensive on Tienmen, 25 miles south of Kiangshan and Tsenkiang, on the south bank of the Siang River south-west of Tienmen.

A serious clash between the Chinese and Japanese units took place at Maohiatseu near Tsenkiang a few days ago. The Japanese, numbering more than 200, were wiped out. Over 30 machine-guns and other war implements were captured by the Chinese.

A brilliant success was scored by the Chinese troops in south Hupeh on May 15 when they recaptured Tangshan, about 80 miles south-east of Hankow, in a smashing attack. A multi-columned drive was also launched by the Chinese toward Tashaping and Kwelkowsch, south-west of Tsungyang, 23 miles west of Tungshan.

JAPANESE HALTED

In northwest Kiangsi the Chinese drove away the Japanese at 1939.

LT.-COMDR. W. F. HASELFOOT OF THE THISTLE

Served With Phoenix In China

LONDON, April 10 (By Air Mail)—Lieutenant-Commander Wilfrid Frederick Haselfoot, R.N., who was in command of the submarine Thistle, which is overdue and presumed lost, had served for nearly 19 years in the Navy.

SCIENCE PRIZE

On passing out from Dartmouth Naval College in July, 1925, he gained the second prize for his term in science, and during the next three years was a cadet and midshipman in the battle cruiser Hood.

He was made an acting sub-lieutenant in September, 1928, confirmed in the rank six months later, and in his courses for lieutenant gained five first-class certificates, whereby his commission as lieutenant was post-dated to April 1, 1930.

SERVED IN CHINA

In the same year he specialised in submarines, the vessels in which he served including the Phoenix, in China.

In 1934 he became second in command in L53, and a year later in the Salmon, in the 5th Submarine Flotilla, in home waters and the Mediterranean respectively.

COMMANDED H43

In January, 1937, he was appointed for the commanding officers' course, and three months later took command of H43 in the 5th Flotilla. From April, 1938, he had a spell of general naval service in the battleship Barham, and returned to submarines in command of the Thistle a few months ago.

The Roll of Honour of losses Hongkong Daily Press Office, in the Thistle has arrived and may be inspected at the Marina House.

CATHOLIC NEWS & NOTES

TRINITY SUNDAY: PATRON SAINT OF SWEDEN: CATHOLIC FILM ACTOR

The Doctrine of the Blessed Trinity might be called the central doctrine of revealed religion in the Christian system, for while the existence of one God can be known from reason, the doctrine of three Persons in one God cannot be known except through actual divine revelation. All that reason can show is that the doctrine involves no contradiction. Its reasonableness is confirmed by the fact that Plato had a glimmer of something very like it.

It was not until the fourteenth century that one special Sunday—the first after Pentecost, which occurs tomorrow—was set aside as a special feast throughout the Universal Church, though it had been observed locally in England since the days of St. Thomas a Becket, the martyred Archbishop of Canterbury.

PATRON SAINT

Today is the feast of St. Eric, the Patron Saint of Sweden. He was king of the country in the twelfth century and died a few years before St. Thomas a Becket was appointed to the See of Canterbury in England. As a king he was most conspicuous as a lawgiver and his justice is proverbial. He was a great lover of peace but also a champion of the oppressed, and it was his sympathy with the sufferings of his people on the coast, who were prey to the pirates that then inhabited Finland, that led him to make war on the Finns. It was a war that was pursued with none of the vindictiveness common to most of the wars of that age and he tried to temper the rigour of the punitive expedition by bringing the blessing of Christianity in its train.

MARTIN GOOD RIDER

Martin Good Rider, the Blackfoot Indian boy, who appeared with Shirley Temple in "Susannah of the Mounties," shown in Hongkong this week, is a Catholic boy of the Jesuit Indian mission in Montana. He was brought to New Orleans with a few other Indian boys from the Mission School to take part in a Missionary Congress and Exhibition. It was there that he caught the eye of the representative of a film company. For his screen test he sang an Irish song! He was then thirteen years of age. When offered the film contract he asked first if it would mean interrupting his studies, for he wished to complete his course, and it is his dream to be a priest one day.

ANOTHER STAR

Another Catholic film actor, much better known than the Indian boy, also appeared in a film shown here this week—Pat O'Brien in "The Fighting Sixty-Ninth." Pat O'Brien, who is said to have more friends than any in Hollywood studied law at Marquette University, directed by the Jesuits in his native city of Milwaukee. His success in college theatricals led him to the stage and he went through some lean years before he reached Broadway.

In "The Fighting Sixty-Ninth," Pat O'Brien once again plays the part of a priest, Fr. Duffy, one of the most famous of American army chaplains, who is honoured by a statue in New York.

LESSON SERMON

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST, HONG KONG.

The subject of the Lesson Sermon in all Christian Science Churches tomorrow will be: "Mortals and Immortals." The "Golden Text" will be: "This corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality." (1 Cor. 15:53)

Among others the following citations will be read from the Bible:—The children of thy servants shall continue, and their seed shall be established before thee. The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit that we are the children of God, and at children, that heirs, heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ." (Ps. 102:28; Rom. 8:16,17)

The following citations will also be read from the Christian Science Text-book, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy:—"To the five corporeal senses, man appears to be matter and mind united; but Christian Science reveals man as the idea of God, and declares the corporeal senses to be mortal and erring illusions. Divine Science shows it to be impossible that a material body should be man—the genuine and perfect man—the immortal idea of being, indestructible and eternal." (Page 477)

INTERCESSION AT CATHEDRAL

DEAN WILSON ON IDEALS AND VISIONS

"If you really want to be of use to the world, don't get fussy and worried, but learn to wait. Don't throw away your visions and ideals impatiently, when things are dark and desperate; wait for it," asserted the Very Rev. J. L. Wilson in the course of his address at the United Interdenominational Service of Intercession in St. John's Cathedral yesterday evening.

"Without congratulating ourselves on the measure of success in unity among the Churches in Hongkong, it is something for us to thank God for," he added.

"In time of disaster, anxiety and agony, and the world out of joint, there is a message to us from God: 'If the vision tarry, wait for it will come, and it will not be too late.' (Habakkuk, Ch. 2, v. 2). It is a vision of a world of righteousness, peace and goodness."

CANNOT BE DESTROYED

Dean Wilson went on to say that people seemed to think that everything would finish and that civilisation would perish. Although the world might be shaken from its foundations, God was and is, and could not be destroyed.

We were not using rightly the victories that we won in the past. Again we had to strive for our liberties and to pray that God give us wisdom to use our liberties in that way.

Every act we did to bring in a better world, was handing the torch to other people. We might not live to see the vision, but it will come.

It was not too late to build a new world out of the ruins of this one.

Suppose the forces of evil conquer? he asked. All was not lost. God was not destroyed. God was on His Throne and none could overthrow Him.

NEW YORK RUBBER: Reports of increasing shipping facilities from the Indies to the United States caused further liquidation.

CHICAGO WHEAT: The market tendency was firmer on reports of a little favourable turn in the European war news. Good will buying, heavy short covering and improved flour sales also aided the market.

IRATE JOURNALIST

from one half of myself to the other—disturb the balance of power?"

USUAL "BLAH"

Added irate Mr. Swaffer: "If, in London, the foreign editor of the Daily Herald wishes to speak to his correspondent in Paris, he cannot do so. He can call on his men in Brussels, Amsterdam, Sweden, Copenhagen or Oslo and get them in a few minutes unless the line is busy."

"But, no! You cannot telephone to Paris," is the rule.

"For all these reasons—and for others the British people are absolutely cut off from their allies over the Channel. They know nothing of what is going on."

"Only the usual 'blah' about how marvellous everybody is—and that is never true—gets through."

In Paris he certainly found a branch of the Ministry of Information in the British Embassy, in charge of Philip Carr, son of the late Comyns Carr, the dramatist. But no-one seemed to know what was happening there, except that dramatist Noel Coward, in uniform, had been seen going in and out on various hush-hush missions.

LUCKY STROKE

Few of these disclosures might have found their way even into Swaffer's lively column but for a lucky stroke. As he was leaving Le Bourget, he was told in a whisper "The censor's resigned."

Safe in the knowledge that his revelations dealt with a defeated Cabinet and an ousted censor, Swaffer let the story go. The newly-appointed Information Minister, L. L. Frossard, arrived in London to consult with Information Minister Sir John Reith.

Fleet Street and Mr. Swaffer hoped M. Frossard would straighten out the tangle.

"At night all England is now blacked out. If anybody wants to smoke a cigarette he must do it inside a wardrobe. And it is very difficult to find a public-house."

—Straits Times, Singapore.

BEST-INFORMED MAN ON THE WORLD'S BIGGEST PROBLEM

The Conte di Savoia brought Mr. Sumner Welles back to Manhattan from his 41-day mission to Europe. Ship-news reporters found the Under-Secretary of State cold, erect, impenetrable as usual, impeccable, in a double-breasted blue suit with a navy-blue tie on his soft-collared white shirt, holding a blue chestfield overcoat and Homburg hat.

BEST-INFORMED

If looking and listening could do it, in those 41 days Sumner Welles had become the best informed man in the world on the world's biggest problem—World War II. By sea, air, train, airplane and steamer, he had covered 14,000 miles; he had conferred with two Kings—George VI of Britain, Vittorio Emanuele III of Italy; one Fuehrer; one Duce; two Prime Ministers—Chamberlain, Daladier (and Reynaud, successor to Daladier); with the Foreign Ministers and officialdom of all four countries, opposition party spokesmen of the Allies; with Pope Pius XII.

His job nearly done, glacial Mr. Welles melted ever so slightly; he seemed pleasantly weary, a touch debonair. He was happy to be home, and admitted it. A reporter referred to the 13-hour Gibraltar delay while British searched the Conte di Savoia for Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, once Nazi Minister of Economics. Newsman: "Was Dr. Schacht in your trunk?" Grinned Mr. Welles: "Just like Morgan's Midget."

TRIP ENDS

In Washington at 2:40 p.m., Mr. Welles entered the State Department, strode into the big, paper-cluttered office of his chief Cordell Hull. Twenty-nine minutes later Mr. Welles, his face settled into its mask of boredom, Mr. Hull, with his patient, pallbearers' air, stepped along the rubber mat of the White House entrance: the gleaming glass-and-bronze doors swung wide under the hands of the blue-uniformed Negro doorman. Hats and coats taken.

Messrs. Hull and Welles stepped into the whirling little elevator, creaked up to the oval second-floor study where sat Franklin Roosevelt at the huge desk carved from timbers of the Resolute. There ended Welles's trip.

WET-BLANKET ADVICE

At 4:20 p.m. Secretary Stephen T. Early called in reporters for a word of friendly but wet-blanket advice "not to write yourself out on the end of a limb, or to attribute what you assume the President, Mr. Hull and Mr. Welles are discussing to any allegedly authorized or unimpeachable or reliable sources or to friends close to the President or to the Secretary of State or to the Under-Secretary of State, that neither the President, nor the Secretary of State nor the Under-Secretary of State will have any word to say to the press or to any of their friends or to anyone anywhere following their conference." At 4:40 p.m. Messrs. Hull and Welles departed, polite, noncommittal.

At next afternoon's press conference the President announced that the Welles trip had been fact-finding, that the facts he had found would be held incommunicado, that Mr. Welles had neither made nor received any commitments or proposals. Said Mr. Roosevelt: "Finally, even though there may be scant immediate prospects for the establishment of any just, stable and lasting peace in Europe, the information made available to this Government as a result of Mr. Welles's mission will undoubtedly be of the greatest value when the time comes for the establishment of such a peace."

Curiosity over Mr. Welles's findings, hazled out, was centred on a fresher sensation, the Nazi White Book on U. S. foreign policy.

HITLER WILL NOT
LAST TWO WEEKS

knew of this about July and I am of the opinion that the British Government also knew. At the same time Hitler designed his peace offensive against Britain and France, but this was doomed to failure.

Despite Hitler's efforts, France refused to believe that it was Britain alone that was dragging her into war and now, to make things even more difficult for Hitler, the British people are insisting on a more vigorous war against Nazism.

Germany had just gone through a long winter, with all its hardships, and conditions that prevailed made Hitler feel that he cannot go through another winter without doing something to show the German people that it was worth their while.

LESS SUPPORT FOR HITLER
At one stage, not so many days ago, observers thought Hitler would play for a stalemate in the West while his U-Boats and magnetic mines seriously affected Britain's imports from overseas, but here is a point that has to be stressed.

The German people today are less inclined to support Hitler than the people were to support the Imperial German Government for the first three years at least, of the last war.

The reason is not hard to seek. In 1914 the Kaiser had no concentration camps in Germany—he did not make his enemies suffer as Hitler has been, and still is, doing to people who did not share his points of view.

It has been estimated that at least one-third of the German people have suffered the agonies of the concentration camps, and at the same time a great many more give their support to Hitler without conviction.

Hitler's answer to this was an effort to give these doubters proof of his power, and that explains all his moves since the march into Austria.

On the surface of it the unity in Hitler's Germany today is unshaken but it is because Hitler knows otherwise that he has launched these offensives.

HITLER IS DOOMED
Hitler wants to win the war in two weeks, and he knows that if he fails he is doomed.

It is to the youth of Germany today that Hitler looks to for support. Young men and women, who were brought up with Nazism instilled into them, follow him today and it is with these young men that Hitler has filled his armies to invade his smaller neighbours. The young women have been taught to do their parts in Hitler's campaigns too—so that treachery from within may facilitate assault from without.

ALLIES MIGHT CATCH UP

Dealing with the big offensive that has just been launched, Mr. Wickham Steed said that Hitler made this move because he was afraid that unless he acted quickly there was a prospect that his vast reserves of planes and tanks, assembled over a period of years, would either become obsolete or that they would be offset by Allied preparations.

Continuing, Mr. Wickham Steed said that as one observer so aptly put it the other day, a mechanised Attila launches an attack without regard to the loss of human lives. This Attila is bound to score an initial success, but it is that kind of success that cannot be maintained.

WIDELY KNOWN

Admiral Sir Edward Evans is one of the best known of naval officers. A member of Captain Scott's Antarctic expedition in the early years of the century, he became widely known by his books and lectures about the South Polar Regions.

In 1917 he was promoted from commander to captain after the action in which the Swift, Commander Peck, officer, and his own ship, the Broke, engaged six German destroyers and sank two of them.

As a flag officer he commanded the Australian Squadron and the Africa Station, with conspicuous success.

LAST NAVAL SERVICE
His last naval service was as Commander-in-Chief of The Nore, since which he has been one of the two Regional Civil Defence Commissioners for London. Lady Evans is a Norwegian. Sir Edward speaks the language fluently and is as popular in that country as in his own.

AMERICA'S
NO. 1
DISTANCE
RUNNER

Chunky Gregory Rice, of South Bend, Ind., looping around to the time, or Notre Dame's Victory March, a two-mile race, headliner of New York's Knights of Columbus track meet, in 3 min., 56.2 sec., breaking the world's indoor record by almost two seconds; before 18,000 spectators; at Manhattan's Madison Square Garden.

Hailed as America's No. 1 distance runner, Notre Damer Rice, who also set a new world's indoor record for three miles (13:55.9) three weeks ago, will be matched next fortnight against famed Finn Taisto Maki, holder of the world's outdoor records for two miles (8:53.2) and three miles (13:42.4).

An unnamed red fox, the 144th anniversary Bayard Taylor Memorial Hunt, biggest fox hunt ever held in the U.S.; outwitting 140 hounds (seven packs) before 10,000 spectators, on the estates of Pierre S. du Pont and W. Flindley Stewart in Chester County, Pa.

After a chase of six miles, the fox jumped to the roof of a shed, climbed through a window, was rescued just as the hounds approached the door. Carried off in a sack, the fox was released after the hounds were called off.

WHAT OF ITALY?
Britain and France are prepared in the Mediterranean and so is Egypt.
It is possible, said Mr. Wickham Steed, that Mussolini has waited till Hitler started his invasion of Holland and Belgium, so while the Allies are engaged there, Italy's task will be lightened.

"HUGE QUANTITIES" OF AIRCRAFT BOUGHT FROM AMERICA

LONDON, April 19 (By Air Mail)

—Mr. Arthur B. Purvis, head of the Anglo-French Purchasing Mission, announced in Washington to-day that the Allies have already purchased "huge quantities" of the three latest types of American military aircraft, and that additional contracts would be signed "in the very near future" for others of five types which the United States Government released for sale only last week. He said that the sums involved were "very large indeed."

CONTRACTS SIGNED

Contracts were signed in New York yesterday for great numbers—he did not specify how many—of Curtiss fighters and Douglas attack bombers. The latter are reputed here to be the fastest machines of their type in the world.

A third contract will be signed immediately for another of the types just released. The five types released last week were the Curtiss P-40, the Douglas attack bomber, the Bell P-39 fighter, the

Board Bill
For Rescued
Soul!

Fan American Airways' auditing department received a bill from the constabulary of Wahn-sien, China, which, translated, read: "Board bill for one rescued soul, $3.18, Mexican." Cheap enough, agreed the auditors, but why the bill? Intra-company investigation led to Captain C. S. Vaughn, P. A. A. pilot on the Miami-Rio de Janeiro run, who used to fly on the China run.

FOUR YEARS AGO

His story: Four years ago, at Wahn-sien, on the rushing Yangtze River, he called for help to a watching throng as his ship was about to collide with the landing float. "First to volunteer," explained he, "was no strong husky male, but a frail Dresden China 'doll'."

Other persons promptly followed and, in their eagerness, pushed the celestial maiden overboard. Although the girl was drowning in full sight of thousands of Chinese, they, with much better appreciation of China's tremendous population than I, passively watched her float past....

MAINTENANCE

Thereupon Captain Vaughn jumped in, swam ashore with the young woman and with difficulty persuaded a constable to take charge of her. Seven months later, the police handed Captain Vaughn a bill for her maintenance. She was his responsibility, said they. He paid the bills for a while, but finally decided the line was responsible and directed that they be sent to P. A. A. headquarters.

From P. A. A. auditors to Captain Vaughn Miami, nevertheless, went the latest bill for $3-18, Mexican.

Since then, however, President Roosevelt has appealed to Mussolini and the American leader had also made a very pointed address to Congress in which he mentioned that he hoped there will not be any short-sighted delay in the delivery of planes to the Allies.

PREMIER'S WORDS
Mr. Wickham Steed mentioned that no matter what the possible outcome of the present big battle may be, there was no doubt whatever regarding the ultimate outcome of the war.

In this connexion we need to take very literally the words of Mr. Winston Churchill when he made his first address, as Prime Minister. He said:—

"I have nothing to offer but blood, toil, tears and sweat. We have before us an ordeal of the most grievous kind. To ask what is our policy I say it is to wage war; war by land, sea and air, war with all our might and with all the strength God has given us; and war against a monstrous tyranny never surpassed in the dark, lamentable catalogue of human crime. That is our policy."

Concluding, Mr. Wickham Steed said:—
"We are going forward together. The people at home, the people overseas, in France and our other Allies, and we are sure our cause will not fail."
